All regular applications are responded to within 48 hours, except during open application times. Open application times are put on a 7 day limit for response. Open applications are started one month prior to the start of the grant period to ensure critical response times during the heating season. Elderly, disabled, and families with young children are prioritized when processing applications and sending awards to vendors by ensuring that applications are processed sooner and awards sent in the first rounds of disbursements.

The poverty level points and the dwelling points are averaged (divided by 2) to determine the amount of points awarded.

Benefit Levels, 2605(b)(5) - Assurance 5, 2605(c)(1)(B)

Section 12: Fair Hearings, 2605(b)(13) - Assurance 13

12.1 How many fair hearings did the grantee have in the prior Federal fiscal year? 0

12.2 How many of those fair hearings resulted in the initial decision being reversed? 0

12.3 Describe any policy and/or procedural changes made in the last Federal fiscal year as a result of fair hearings?

N/A

12.4 Describe your fair hearing procedures for households whose applications are denied.

Client Grievances are handled as follows (a complete copy of the Client Grievance Procedures is included as an attachment):

It is the policy of the Aroostook Band of Micmacs (Tribe) Tribal Administration to avoid circumstances leading to the occurrence of complaints and grievances by individual clients. However, when they do occur, every effort will be made to resolve them quickly and equitably. The following steps constitute the grievance procedure, which applies to all programmatic and personnel complaints and will be a choice for individual clients verses appealing directly to Tribal Council or the funding agency when said clients feel they have been treated unfairly. Clients may grieve in the event that:

1. the Tribe did not act upon their complete application quickly enough; or
2. the application for assistance was unfairly denied; or
3. the amount of their benefit is in question; or
4. the client feels that they have been treated unfairly in any manner by employees of the Tribe throughout the application process.

Personnel Grievance/Complaints

1. The grievance, which must be asserted within ten (10) working days of the event or incident giving rise to the grievance, shall be discussed (and written documentation) with the Personnel Manager (Director of Human Resources). Elders will be assisted in completing the appropriate documentation needed. An adult must accompany clients under the age of eighteen (18). If the grievance is asserted against the Personnel Manager (Director of Human Resources), the Tribal Administrator will act as the liaison.
2. The Personnel Manager (Director of Human Resources) will then facilitate the processing of the grievance, starting with the employee the grievance is asserted against.
3. Each level of the chain of command that reviews the grievance must respond and attach written documentation of the response.
4. When the chain of command has reached the Tribal Administrator, the decision of the Tribal Administrator is final unless the client appeals in writing within five (5) working days of the receipt of the Tribal Administrator's decision to the Personnel Manager (Director of Human Resources) to appear before the Tribal Chief and Council. If the grievance is asserted against the Tribal Administrator, the decision of the Tribal Chief will be final unless appealed to appear before the Tribal Council.
5. The Tribal Chief and Council will review the decisions of the Tribal Administrator at its next regular meeting. The Tribal Council may sustain, reverse, or selectively alter the Tribal Administrator's decision. The decision of the Tribal Council will be final. In the event that the grievance is asserted against the Tribal Administrator, Tribal Council will review the decision made by the Tribal Chief and render a final decision.
6. The complete record of the grievance will be placed in the employee's personnel record, and upon request of the authority rendering the decision, will be placed in the file of the lower level supervisors involved in the grievance process as described in the preceding steps.

Client's Grievances/Complaints

1. The grievance, which must be asserted within ten (10) working days of the event or incident giving rise to the grievance, shall be discussed (and written documentation) with the Tribal Administrator. Elders will be assisted in completing the appropriate documentation needed. An adult must accompany clients under the age of eighteen (18).
2. The Tribal Administrator will then facilitate the processing of the grievance, starting with the Program Director of the department to which the grievance is asserted against.
3. Each level in the chain of command that reviews the grievance must respond and attach written documentation of the response.
4. If at any time during the programmatic grievance process personnel issues evolve, these issues will be appropriately documented by the level in the chain of command encountering the problem and immediately forwarded to the Personnel Manager for further investigation.
5. If the efforts through the chain of command and the Tribal Administrator have not resolved the issue, the client may then request a meeting with the Program Appeals Board from the Tribal Administrator.
6. The Tribal Administrator, after obtaining appropriate release of information when necessary, will present all information and the nature of the complaint to the Program Compliance Officer.
7. The Program Compliance Officer will review the information and nature of the complaint and schedule a meeting of the Program Appeals Board to render a decision. The Program Appeals Board meeting must be scheduled within ten (10) working days after the grievance is received by the Program Compliance Officer and notification of the time and place will be given to the Program Director and aggrieved client.

8. The client must sign any appropriate authorization for disclosure or release of information forms necessary. A copy of this form will be made available to all members of the Program Appeals Board prior to the meeting. The information release authorization is effective for the specific timeframe to answer the purpose for which it is given and no further information will be released without execution of an additional written statement of consent.

9. Once appropriate release of information is obtained, the Program Appeals Board shall review all information and meet with the aggrieved client as well as pertinent staff, including the Program Director. The Program Appeals Board will render a decision within five (5) working days of the date of the meeting and may sustain, reverse, or selectively alter the Program Director's decision.

10. The Program Compliance Officer will forward the decision of the Program Appeals Board to the Tribal Administrator for review and appropriate action if necessary. The Tribal Administrator will then notify all parties concerned of the decision. The decision of the Program Appeals Board is final.

11. The complete record of the grievance will be placed in the Tribal Administrator's file and upon request of the authority rendering the decision, will be placed in the file of the lower level supervisors involved in the grievance process as described in the preceding steps.

12.5 When and how are applicants informed of these rights?

Applicants are informed of their right to a fair hearing upon receiving the application for services. A copy of the Client Grievance Procedures is provided to clients as part of the application package that is mailed out at the beginning of September as part of the Tribal newsletter.

12.6 Describe your fair hearing procedures for households whose applications are not acted on in a timely manner.

The fair hearing process is the same for those applicant households whose applications have not been acted upon in a timely manner as those who have been denied services, as described above in question 12.4 and as an attachment titled Client Grievances.

12.7 When and how are applicants informed of these rights?

Applicants are informed of the right to grieve when they receive an application. A copy of the Aroostook Band of Micmacs Client Grievance Procedures is included with each application. They are invited to utilize the fair hearing process to exercise their voice and protect their personal rights as well as the rights of all household members.

Section 13: Reduction of home energy needs, 2605(b)(16) - Assurance 16

13.1 Describe how you use LIHEAP funds to provide services that encourage and enable households to reduce their home energy needs and thereby the need for energy assistance?

Monthly newsletters to the community provide information on heat-saving measures as well as low-to-no-cost heat-saving methods to our community. Alternative resources are utilized to assist clients in finding alternative weatherization methods and referrals are done to the CAP agency that provides the weatherization services in our service area. Programs for more energy efficient forms of heating water and heat pumps are being accessed on behalf of clients whose homes qualify for the assistance.

13.2 How do you ensure that you don't use more than 5% of your LIHEAP funds for these activities?

No more than 1% of our LIHEAP funds are to be used for purposes such as outreach services, budget counseling, needs assessment, home energy education and referrals. This limit will be strictly enforced by on site budget review and approval process and on site fiscal monitoring. Any cost incurred in excess of the 1% limitation must be borne by other/alternative program funds.

13.3 Describe the impact of such activities on the number of households served in the previous Federal fiscal year.

There seems to be little impact on the number of households serviced in the previous Federal fiscal year.; although, there seems to be an impact on how far the current funding levels go in providing heat throughout the winter months for those who take advantage of some of the referrals and tips.

13.4 Describe the level of direct benefits provided to those households in the previous Federal fiscal year.
