12.4 Describe your fair hearing procedures for households whose applications are denied and/or not acted upon in a timely manner.

The tribe agrees to provide a fair hearing, within fourteen days, upon written request by the individual who has been denied or feels that a claim has not been acted on in a timely manner. The tribe agrees to furnish dissatisfied applicants with an impartial hearing before a hearing officer of the tribal government, per MIN's standard grievance policy. The final results of such hearing will be mailed to applicant within 10 days of the hearing. The applicant is informed of his/her rights to a fair hearing at the time of the application. Applicants will have to sign and initial that they have read and reviewed the fair hearing policy as part of their application.

12.5 When and how are applicants informed of these rights?

When an approval/denial letter is mailed to each applicant, our letter states that if they are dissatisfied with the decision that has been made on the application, the first step is to contact our housing department to be sure all the information provided was correct in determining eligibility. If there has been an error in determining the applications eligibility the applicant has the right to appeal. A request is required in writing within 30 days of the approval/denial letter. A fair hearing will be scheduled and the applicant will be notified by mail the date and time.

Instructions for Certification

1. By signing and submitting this proposal, the prospective primary participant is providing the certification set out below.

2. The inability of a person to provide the certification required below will not necessarily result in denial of participation in this covered transaction. The prospective participant shall submit an explanation of why it cannot provide the certification set out below. The certification or explanation will be considered in connection with the department or agency's determination whether to enter into this transaction. However, failure of the prospective primary participant to furnish a certification or an explanation shall disqualify such person from participation in this transaction.

3. The certification in this clause is a material representation of fact upon which reliance was placed when the department or agency determined to enter into this transaction. If it is later determined that the prospective primary participant knowingly rendered an erroneous certification, in addition to other remedies available to the Federal Government, the department or agency may terminate this transaction for cause or default.

4. The prospective primary participant shall provide immediate written notice to the department or agency to which this proposal is submitted if at any time the prospective primary participant learns that its certification was erroneous when submitted or has become erroneous by reason of changed circumstances.

5. The terms covered transaction, debarred, suspended, ineligible, lower tier covered transaction, participant, person, primary covered transaction, principal, proposal, and voluntarily excluded, as used in this clause, have the meanings set out in the Definitions and Coverage sections of the rules implementing Executive Order 12549.
